

Name: Colin McKenzie

Is the vision of the draft Plan one in which you can share?:

Yes, I share your view.

In the light of your response to the above question, are the proposed sectoral projects essential to the meeting of the action area aims for 2012? If not, why not?:

Yes all are essential

Are the outcomes for the twenty themes and the priorities for tackling them correctly outlined and prioritised? If not, why not?:

I agree

In the light of your response to the above question, what projects do you view as being essential to implementing these priorities (some examples are offered in Appendix I)?:

Support for the Gaelic bodies is key to promoting the future of the language.

And are the right organisations identified as being the primary players in implementing these priorities?:

Yes, the key bodies have been listed.

If you are responding on behalf of an organisation, how do you see yourselves contributing to the success of the National Plan?:

Personal view, not that of my employer

Do you have any other comments on the draft National Plan which you would like to submit?:

Very pleased to note the professionally developed contents.
Continued political support will be needed for it to succeed.
Wider communication of progress would be helpful.

I agree for my views to be made public: ON
