

My views on the plan is that it is quite difficult for the ordinary person like myself to read. However as the father of three young children the eldest two of whom are in nursery and P1 of the Tollcross Bun Sgoil, my biggest question would be ;

Would it help force Edinburgh District Council into providing a Gaelic speaking high school in the future.