Is the vision of the draft Plan one in which you can share?:

Yes

In the light of your response to the above question, are the proposed sectoral projects essential to the meeting of the action area aims for 2012? If not, why not?:

Yes.

Are the outcomes for the twenty themes and the priorities for tackling them correctly outlined and prioritised? If not, why not?:

Yes.

In the light of your response to the above question, what projects do you view as being essential to implementing these priorities (some examples are offered in Appendix I)?:

AÀA commends to you our project to produce a National Gaelic Gazetteer. We believe this to be essential to help develop understanding of the place of the Gaelic language in our culture. A gazetteer will also be of great importance for the credibility of the language in the eyes of the broader community. This project is supported by our member local authorities and has been commended by the Cross Party Gaelic Group in the Scottish Parliament. We believe this project to be of such national importance that it should be highlighted and specified as a key project in the final National Plan for Gaelic.

And are the right organisations identified as being the primary players in implementing these priorities?:

The AÀA is both pleased and proud to have been identified as a primary player in the Draft Plan and we will play our part to the best of our ability.

If you are responding on behalf of an organisation, how do you see yourselves contributing to the success of the National Plan?:

Fundamentally with regard to work on place-names.

Do you have any other comments on the draft National Plan which you would like to submit?:

No.
