Are you satisfied with the interpretation of equal respect on page 8?:

Yes. The key is proportionality in terms of the number of Gaelic users served by any organisation. The exemplification of equal respect is clear.

Are the issues concerning the level of provision on pages 9-10 adequately tackled?:

Yes. The main issues are raised and the issue of local conditions, set against national expectations, is helpfully explored.

Is the advice in each section clear and helpful?:

Yes.

Are the suggestions from page 14 for the content of a Gaelic language plan comprehensive enough and appropriate to the requirements of Gaelic development?:

Yes. This is helpful in terms both of expectation and responsibility.

Are the percentages proposed on pages 18-19 and page 22 for the triggering of various policy provision and employment requirements, realistic and appropriate?:

Yes - insofar as there is a need for clarity, and the proposed figures do not seem unrealistic although the rationale for these particular percentage figures is not described.

If you are responding on behalf of an organisation, would the draft Guidance adequately assist in drawing up a Gaelic language plan?:

Yes.
